

How do we make an environment more inclusive of sexual and gender diversity?

Here are a few resources!

Click on the titles to access the documents

Showcasing your openness

Created by the LGBT Family Coalition

Showcasing your openness is a tool that has been created to allow you to initiate or continue a reflection on the inclusion of individuals and families of sexual and/or gender diversity in your organization as well as to offer you solutions to adapt your practices.

intervene with trans seniors

Created by Fondation Émergence

This file of resources and means of action to ensure the well-being of LGBT seniors in their living environments.

Toolkit Celebrating two-spirit identities

Created by Sima Youssef, Project Manager at the association LGBT+ Baie-des-Chaleurs

A toolkit that brings together various resources from Two-Spirit authors, researchers, and activists to promote their work and stories to 2SLGBTQIA+ organizations.

Gender Diversity Allies Network

Created by the Public Health Department

A network of more than 170 professionals working with youth and adults, including teachers, nurses, social, community and youth workers, psychologists, guidance counsellors, etc., who are open-minded, competent and sensitive to the difficulties, realities and needs of homosexual, bisexual and transgender people of all ages.

20 ideas for creating schools that are open to sexual and gender diversity.

Created by the LGBT Family Coalition

Materials for teachers, administrators and other professionals who work with youth to create safe and open environments

Activity guide for May 17

Created by the International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia and Biphobia collective

This guide is intended to help school staff organize one or more activities in their school on this day to create a more inclusive climate for years to come. You will find turnkey activities, resources and explanations on the importance of making your school a safe and inclusive place.

integrating trans people into the workplace

Created by Fondation Émergence and Aide au Trans du Québec

This information guide aims to equip employers to ensure a transphobia-free workplace. You will find basic information on trans issues in the workplace, employer responsibilities and various measures to ensure adequate inclusion of trans people in your workplace.